IRIS DATASET — CHART STORY

KEY INSIGHTS — IRIS DATASET:-

Petal measurements distinguish the three Iris species clearly. Iris-setosa has the smallest average petal length and width, Iris-versicolor is intermediate, and Iris-virginica has the largest petals. Average sepal length increases from setosa to virginica more gradually. Each species has 50 records, making the dataset evenly distributed and suitable for comparison.